Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis and son, Andrew Rawlitch, of South Manchester, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greene of Summer street.

One of the features of the K. of C. Frolic was the parade in costume of the members who were in the mistletoe and went through the principal streets of the town Wednesday evening. The musical show which was presented at the Opera house filled the house to its capacity.

Not a seat was to be had after the show began. The parts were finely rendered and the principals made a big success. Every number scored a hit. The costumes were cleverly gotten up and the novelties in the special acts were fine. The following were introduced: "Mr. Jim" McCormick, Big Profundo, Thomas F. Clancy, specialty dancing, Charles Greene, Just Like a Rainbow, Frank La Perre, Act 2, Bingo Hiffin and Arthur W. Brown in songs, Act 3, A Military Travesty, The Battle of Too Soon, The Officer, Dr. H. P. Doyle, the orderly, George Chapman, Act 4, Edward Rhoades, the Tramp Juggler, Part 2, in a Rower of Roses, introducing A. L. J. Twomey, interior, comedians, George F. Chapman, Edward J. Butler, Edward M. Brown, James J. Moore, William F. Donovan, James McCormick and a large chorus who were heard to advantage in their fine rendering of the songs throughout the evening. Each member of the company received hearty applause which showed how well the large audience appreciated the ability of the members who have worked faithfully to make the entertainment a success.

COULD NOT KEEP HOUSE

Without Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Says Mrs. Pitts of Newburgh

Newburgh, N. Y.—"My trouble was a weak back and I could not walk two blocks without being tired out. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in a newspaper and decided to give it a trial. Now I can do my own work and walk with ease. I always keep the Vegetable Compound in the house. It certainly is my best friend and I could not keep house without it. I have recommended it to many and always shall. You may use this letter if you wish."—Mrs. EDWARD PITTS, 2 High St., Newburgh, N. Y.

It has been said that "backache is an invention of the Evil One to try women's souls," but even so, it is more often a symptom of a female trouble which sooner or later declares itself. Day after day it drags a woman down and night after night prevents restful sleep. Such woman should follow Mrs. Pitt's advice and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It contains no narcotic or harmful drugs.

STONINGTON

This week at the store of Albert Fort, electrician, some one forced an entrance to the back room, but nothing seemed to be touched whether the law-breakers were scared away before they had a chance to steal anything is not known. A year ago several breaks were made here and the authorities are bound they will put a stop to such doings. This is the third break this season reported in the borough. The other break was at Mr. and Mrs. Sylvia's home on Hancock street and a sum of money stolen and at Mrs. Courland's Babcock's garage where some tires and automobile accessories were taken. These three breaks have occurred within the past month.

William F. Loudon of Pawcatuck, owner of the Steamboat hotel, was a caller here this week in connection with looking over his property, prior to arranging to make some changes in the building which is being painted. He contemplates putting the building in readiness for either bowling alleys or a restaurant.
